Not Open and Will not be Opened.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 1.—The matter of final interment of the late President Garfield's remains at Mentor or His old district. Dr. Robinson has talked with the widow, Mrs. Garfield, who said if the trustees had not offered a lot she would have purchased one in Lakeview cemetery, as she believed, if alive, the late president would so have directed. She thought it his wish to be buried there, and she added: "The question of burial is no longer open, and will not be opened." Garfield's monument fund now aggregates nearly $5,000. A dispatch received to-day from Portland, Oregon, states that $400 has been sent from there and that eallocitions are still the first Monday in November, Banks & Texas Railway Company, Southera branch, at not less than 45 cents on the dollar, and the processite to be applied to the redemption and payment of the outstanding 7 per centred there, and she added: "The question of burial is no longer open, and will not be opened."
